

Charity

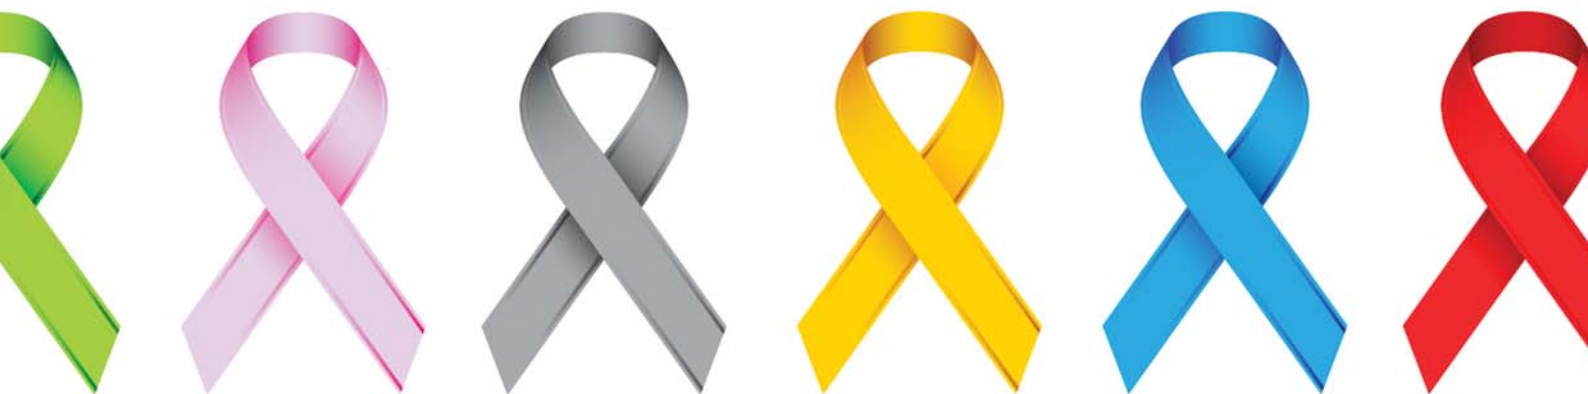

Our services

We are able to offer charities a comprehensive range of services and advice. We have advised substantial charities over a long period of time, have a clear understanding your needs and aspirations and how to give you clear guidance and advice in a complex modern world.

Taylor&Emmet LLP acts for charities of all sizes. We are the chosen solicitors for the Diocese of Hallam and for a large number of schools.

We specialise in:

- Charity company formation
- Declarations of trust
- Registration with the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales
- Advice on the sales and acquisition of property, including the taking and granting of leases
- Advice on the legal regulatory framework within which charities must operate
- Advice on schemes and application of Cy-près for charitable funds and donations
- Winding up of charities
- Merger and acquisition of other charities
- Advice in relation to trading
